

Esther Robzen, 87, formerly of Kingston, died Saturday evening, Jan. 30, 2021, in Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center, due to complications of COVID-19.

Born in Edwardsville, she was the daughter of the late Martin and Marion Iskowitz Weiss; was a graduate of Edwardsville High School and continued her education earning her bachelor's degree in nutrition science from Penn State University. She was a longtime member of Congregation Ohav Zedek, the Jewish Community Center and was very proud to be a Life Master Bridge Player.

She is survived by her loving husband of 65 years, Sidney Robzen; son, Mark Robzen and his wife, Sheri, Kingston; daughter, Wendy Leff and her husband, Steve, Boyton Beach, Fla.; grandson, Alex Leff; son, Keith Robzen, Tuscon, Ariz.; sisters, Rena Roberts and her husband, Rolly, Larksville; and Sarah Blanc, New Jersey; and nieces and nephews. Graveside funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Anshe Emes Cemetery, Plains Twp., with Rabbi Dovid Kaplan officiating and will be live-streamed on Facebook from Rosenberg Funeral Chapel.