

Sidney Robzen, 94, formerly of Kingston, died Saturday morning, February 6, 2021 in Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center due to Covid.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, he was the son of the late Ben and Celia Wolzinger Robzen and was a Graduate of Kingston High School, Class of 1945. Following graduation, he joined the United States Army, proudly serving his country during World War Two as a tank communications specialist in Germany. He and his brothers co-owned Robzens' Inc. in the beef packing industry. He was a member of the Jewish Community Center, Congregation Ohav Zedek and other civic, Religious, and business organizations.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his loving wife Esther Weiss Robzen, just one week prior to his death; brother Leonard Robzen; sister and brother in law Shirley and Irwin Nestler; niece Ellen Robzen Leavitt.

He is survived by son Mark Robzen and his wife Sheri of Kingston; daughter Wendy Leff and her husband Steve of Boyton Beach, FL.; grandson Alex Leff; son Keith Robzen of Tuscon, AZ; brother, Jerry Robzen and his wife Hannah of Kingston; sister in law Florence Robzen of Kingston; brother in law and sister in law Rolly and Rena Roberts of Larksville; sister in law Sarah Blanc of NJ; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Graveside funeral service will be conducted on Monday February 8, 2021 at 2:00 PM in Anshe Emes Cemetery, Plains with Rabbi Dovid Kaplan and Rabbi Larry Kaplan officiating and will be live-streamed on Facebook Temple Israel.